Graduates,

After four years of school during the period of the greatest of all wars, the class of 1946 is graduated into a world seeking peace. Following the terrible destruction and disruption incident to the war, we must have reconstruction, material, mental and moral, in order to achieve lasting peace. Your chief duty now is to contribute to that reconstruction.

That each of you will be able and willing to bear nobly his or her part is my greatest hope and fondest wish for all of you.

Class History

In September 1942, we started our long climb up "Graduation Hill." We met our adviser, Miss Mary Fitzgerald, at the bottom of the hill and proceeded to elect our leaders. Our leaders were as follows: president, Leon Bryant; vice-president, John Harmon; secretary, Gladys Morrison; treasurer, George Johnson. Our first attempt to mount the hill was a Valentine Party. The party was a huge success, and was soon followed by a roller skating party. One fourth of our journey completed, we rested during our summer vacation.

The following September, we were eager to proceed on our long journey toward the top of the hill. We changed leaders and elected the following: president, David Nuttall; vice-president, Barbara Higgins; secretary, Janice Elwood; treasurer, Frances Marshall. As energetic sophomores, we continued our ascent with a Hallowe'en Party, which was enjoyed by all. Our final activity was a roller skating party which brought us to the half way mark of our long climb. Upon reaching the half-way point, everyone enjoyed a well earned rest.

As apprehensive juniors, we looked with anticipation toward our final destination. Once again we chose new leaders. They were as follows: president, Leon Bryant; vice-president, Donald Barnard; secretary, Wilma Stark; treasurer, Virginia Kilmartin. The thrill of getting our class rings was soon forgotten with the coming excitement of our Junior Promenade. The Queen of the Prom, Thelma Champlin, was crowned under an arch of cherry blossoms, which was part of the beautiful Chinese decorations. With the top of the hill in view, we stopped to rest, but met several times for roller skating parties.

Finally — Seniors!! We resumed our zealous journey. We elected the following leaders to take us to the summit: president, Leon Bryant; vice-president, Donald Barnard; secretary, Gladys Morrison; treasurer, Virginia Kilmartin. Our Senior Play, Clarence, coached by Miss Belcher, was presented in December by the following cast: Leon Bryant, Gladys Morrison, David Nuttall, Virginia Kilmartin, Richard Nickless, Cynthia Cousins, Fred Kelley, Emma Gile, Lucy Kamishlian, and Edwin MacIntosh. The play, well patronized, proved to be a most enjoyable entertainment for all.

The next event of the year was our Senior Formal, which was held in February, and greatly enjoyed amid Alpine scenes, our decorative scheme.

Now we are eagerly anticipating our final event, that of graduation. We regretfully say farewell, as the parting of the ways is in view for the class of '46.

GLADYS MORRISON

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1946

BE IT REMEMBERED that we, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-six, of the Howe High School in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this our LAST WILL and TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

We, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-six, do hereby bequeath to the class of nineteen hundred and forty-seven, Room 21 with all its drafts.

We leave our place in the gallery for the Tuesday morning assemblies.

We leave our super-intelligence to enable next year's class to graduate with honors, as we did.

We leave our popularity with the teachers to future seniors who want to graduate.

FIRST CLAUSE: I, Cynthia Cousins, leave my "Monday morning" disposition to John Jacobs.

SECOND CLAUSE: I, Jacqueline Chartier, leave my quiet manner to Betty Innis.

FOURTH CLAUSE: I, John Harmon, leave my chemistry ability to any underclassman who wants to torture his fellow classmates.

FIFTH CLAUSE: I, Richard Nickless, leave my way with the girls to my brother, George, who really doesn't need it.

SIXTH CLAUSE: I, George Merrill, leave my height to Arthur Giles.

SEVENTH CLAUSE: I, Robert Maxwell, leave my seat in math to Mary Condon.

NINTH CLAUSE: I, Edith Staples, leave my Grecian profile to Purdy's studio.

ELEVENTH CLAUSE: I, Thelma Champlin, leave my crown to the lucky junior who will be crowned Queen of the Prom.

THIRTEENTH CLAUSE: I, Joyce Johnston, leave my ability to roller-skate to George Gracie.

FOURTEENTH CLAUSE: I, Francis O'Connor, leave my place in football line up to Getty.

EIGHTEENTH CLAUSE: I, Muriel Weisel, leave by absentee excuses to Dawn Tivey.

TWENTIETH CLAUSE: I, Gladys Morrison, leave my acting ability to next year's leading lady.

TWENTY-THIRD CLAUSE: I, Donald Barnard, leave my ability to speak French to Jack Redman, who wants to speak "avec un bon accent".

TWENTY-FOURTH CLAUSE: I, Eddie Jenkins, leave my ability to get along with Miss O'Neill to Bobby Mason.

TWENTY-FIFTH CLAUSE: I, Vincent DeBenedictis, leave my love of Shakespeare to Mary Myers.

Vol. X, No. 50

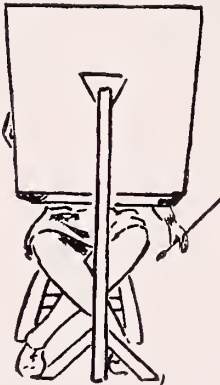

Price 10 cents

PROFESSIONALLY SPEAKING: We now awaken every morning to IRVA TILTON'S melodious and dramatic voice telling us all about "Woof Woof Dog Biscuit". When Irva isn't barking, she spends her time script-writing.

ESTHER ATAMIAN will not be able to attend the class reunion this year because she is now abroad studying under the tutelage of Professor Squeaky, the great violinist of the University of Rome.

Professor FRANCIS X. O'CONNOR has recently opened a branch of his famous dancing studio in Billerica. Now maybe the dances of the undergrads won't be a party of wallflowers only!!

The LOPEZ studio in Greenwich Village is the talk of the town these days. It seems that Brenda won the most coveted advertising contract of the year right out from under the nose of "Petty".

FRANCES MARSHALL, that charming little hepcat, has connived a way of getting rid of the fish at MARSHALL'S FISH STAND. She adds a little jive to each sale.

MARGARET VERHEY-EN, that vivacious cutie, is rumored to be the next bride of Tommy Manville. Good luck, Tommy. Who knows, this time it may be for keeps!

HELEN MAJOR, one of our former more facetious members in room 21, has just made her debut as a radio news commentator.

RUTH STUART has been chosen as second violinist with the New American All-Girl Orchestra. It is rumored that Ruth is related to Nero.

FREDDIE KELLEY, or should we say FREDERICK, who was influenced by his part as butler in the Senior Play back in 1946, has taken the job seriously, and is now employed by Mrs. Archibald Nowitatall, a well-known and prominent resident of Newton Highlands.

CATHERINE PITTS has worked her way up to script-writer for the Abbott and Costello show. These two comedians owe their increased popularity to Kay's witty imagination.

ARTHUR LeBEAU has recently accepted the position of headmaster of the Faulker Kindergarten in North Billerica. His quiet manner is already endearing him to the kiddies.

RICHARD BRIGHAM, as a result of his K. P. duty in the army, has taken a job as chief potato peeler in the Hotel New Yorker.

JOYCE ("STONIE") JOHNSTON has about finished with her training at a well-known Boston hospital. They say her chief interest in nursing is a "sharp" young interne.

Howe High's fast moving EDDIE JENKINS has come back to Howe to teach Electricity and Machines.

JOHN HARMON has been assigned to the teaching staff of the How Bright University.

THEATRICAL HIGHLIGHTS: Among the distinguished faces around town we often see DAVID NUTTALL. You know Dave — he's the rough, tough, and ready guy at M.G.M.

VIRGINIA KILMARTIN, our brilliant young Broadway actress, who got her start in the play CLARENCE, is now starring in "Barney's" new play, "QUEER VEGE-TABLES", which he wrote as a sequel to the book, "STRANGE FRUIT".

ELEANOR CARLINE'S sparkling personality is lighting up Broadway in her new show at the Roxy Theatre. The critics acclaim her as the greatest dancer of the century.

LUCY KAMISHLIAN always did enjoy herself heartily when she laughed, and the gift has won her the job as mistress of ceremonies on the "PEOPLE ARE FUNNY" show. Not only does she do the introducing for this show but she does the scriptwriting for the show immediately following the program.

Flash! Flash! Here is news! EMMA GILE, that famous Metropolitan Opera Star, has consented to take time off from her concert tour to sing a few classical pieces at the President's Ball.

Well, what do you know! Gladys Morgan, nee GLADYS MORRISON, was recently seen walking down the street without her famous twins, Teddy and Becky, stars of the show "Home in Alaska".

EMILY PERRY has finally attained her ambition — that of being sound-effects woman for Spike Jones' Band.

BANG-UP NEWS: VINCENT DeBENEDICTIS is chief chemist for Goodyear Rubber. He isn't doing so well at the moment. His salary is only $10,000 per year.

The new invention of CYNTHIA COUSINS is an entirely new type of perfume called "Nocumstiff". She guarantees it will capture any man's (heart?). That's how she won her husband.

ALFRED SHEPHERD, well-known scientific engineer, has just invented the machine that splits the machine that splits the atom.

The SAVAGE and MORRIONE Airlines are rapidly expanding across the highways of the Airways. You can now secure a ride to Mars for a paltry sum.

POLITICS: CYNTHIA JOHNSON'S charming personality won her a position as receptionist at the American Embassy in Portugal. It was there that she met her husband, Admiral Henn Peckt.

IRENE GLENNON'S fiery debates as Congresswoman are helping to bring world peace closer every day. That's the spirit, Irene!

MURIEL WEISEL has gone to Germany as personal secretary to the President to settle affairs dealing with the army of occupation. She decided that was the only way she could see her fiance.

HOME-FRONT NEWS:

We were surprised to see DONALD McDERMOTT the other day with his wife. He seems to be taking his role as father of six children very well, although he doesn't have the same gleam in his eye as he did in high school days.

ROBERT MAXWELL has finally been tied down by none other than MARY KEANEY. They had quite an argument about his keeping his pin-up girl collection. Oh, well, Mary is a former nurse, so Robert is coming along fine now.

NEAL DURGIN has earned praise for the building of his Nutting's Lake project, consisting of prefabricated and plastic houses.

JOAN FROBESE, who, as you remember, was chosen the best citizen of the class of 1946, is on a tour of the Women's Detention Homes throughout the United States and is lecturing on "How to Walk the Straight and Narrow Path."

We've just received news that CARL SWANSON has just received his Master of Arts Degree from Dartmouth College. He has been offered a position as assistant to the Dean.

JACKIE NICHOLSON, that Romeo-about-town, has decided to take the great step with WILMA STARK! Nice going, Wilma!

SPORTS: LEO SMITH, the co-captain of the football team '46, has returned in the role of coach, and has led his team through an undefeated season.

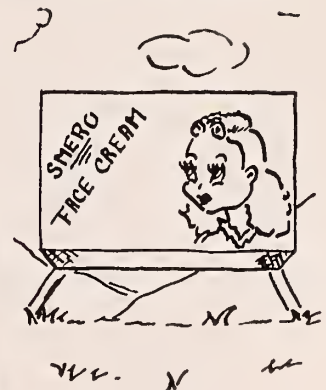

VERNON WILKIE, the lad that never gives up, has reached the peak of his career, as he will fight the champ in three weeks.

SERVICE NOTES: ROSALIE LaVALLE, following in her sister's footsteps, has just joined the Waves, while her mother cares for all the little ripples. Rosalie is stationed in command at the base where her husband is a S2/c.

LEON BRYANT has been given leave to attend the 1946 class reunion. You, no doubt, have read "Lee" is admiral of the fleet in the South Pacific, perfecting the defense mechanisms of the atomic ray against attack on shipping.

LITERARY NOTES:

GORDON GIBB, the better half of Gibb and Gibb who wrote the best seller, HOW TO EAT SPAGHETTI IN 500 EASY LESSONS and the like, has just had his latest FROG LEGS AND HOW TO EAT THEM accepted by his publisher.

ALICE NUSSEY has finally issued a statement that she has just finished translating GONE WITH THE WIDOW into Latin for the younger generation. What next?

The renowned traveler and journalist, ELIZABETH HARFORD, has just written a new book called MON-KEYS IS THE QUASIEST PEOPLE.

PLACES OF INTEREST: On your list of places of interest to see, be sure to jot down THE O'BRIEN HAT SHOP where Dottie, a graduate of Howe High, models the latest creations.

SENSATIONAL: MARY BARTER made the headlines the other day when she testified in the case of the Government vs. The Boggen Company. Mary is now deluged with offers from the picture industry to act in the movie version of this famous trial.

GEORGE MERRILL, for whom the Merrill apple was named last year, is now experimenting with crabapples on his farm in Ohio.

SOCIETY NEWS: Miss MURIEL WOODWORTH, the very charming debutante, was seen in Billerica with her famous millionaire fiance. It is rumoured that they are about to say "adieu".

Has anyone noticed MARY PLOURDE'S new four carat diamond given to her by her husband, Larry, for her first wedding anniversary? She keeps her other jewels in a vault at the bank.

ELINOR WATTS, that dazzling red-head, has added another heart to her collection. Can it be her smile, her hair, or her chatter which gets her all the play-boys?

AP, NEW YORK: DOT SULLIVAN has just received a plaque from GLAMOUR magazine, which proclaims that her eyes are the most beautiful in the world. We could have told GLAMOUR about Dot back in 1946!

Well, boys, "BABE" ZARELLA is still picking them! He just married Lala Maroine, who was chosen "Queen of A. T. C. O." Oh! Well! "Babe", can't say you didn't warn us!

EDITH STAPLES' Beauty Salon has noted a vast increase in business since the charming young manager herself is giving permanents.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME: MAJOR JOE ZARELLA, U.S.A., and Miss O'Neill are still carrying on their friendly feud, which started in English IV-A, in the good old high school days. This time it is via correspondence.

TALK OF THE TOWN: DONALD BARNARD, the little man who was always there when the Howe football team needed him, was seen the other evening showing his neighbor's youngsters and his own six sons how to carry the ball for a touchdown.

Local papers are proud to record that JOHN MASON has been appointed a Supreme Court judge. He will be sworn into office in a few days.

VIRGINIA DURGIN has returned to Howe High as teacher of physical education.

Rumor has it that CONNIE KEW has been promoted to head clothes designer for M.G.M.

Football

The team of 1946 started its season under the direction of Mr. Philip Collins, who was substituting until a permanent coach could be secured. The team played three games before the permanent coach arrived. A former Howe coach, Mr. Chet Ingraham, returned from three years' service in the Army to direct the team.

A great many members of the squad were veterans of the previous year. With a schedule of eight games, the "Green and White" maintained a successful season.

1. HOWE 35

WILMINGTON 6

2. HOWE 7

DRACUT 6

The Howe boys had a hard time eking out a win over a scrappy Dracut eleven.

WESTON 0

LEXINGTON 0

Under the direction of our new coach, Chet Ingraham, an injury-riddled Howe team travelled to Lexington to meet a heavier and more experienced eleven, where the game ended in a deadlock.

5. HOWE 6

TEWKSBURY 7

The Howe team scored in the first period, but failed to get the extra point. They held the lead until the last quarter, when the Tewksbury eleven scored on a pass.

6. HOWE

STONEHAM 6

After a game filled with long runs and brilliant passing, the Howe team returned home with its first win in four years over Stoneham.

CONCORD 0

The Howe boys scored in the first period, and the Green and White maintained this lead until the final whistle blew.

8. HOWE 0

CHELMSFORD 6

The Green and White outfought and outplayed the Chelmsford team all the way. After a questionable decision on the part of the officials, the Chelmsford team was able to score a touchdown in the last forty-five seconds of the game. Despite our defeat, Chelmsford and Howe are tied in the number of games for the consideration of the cup.

Meet The Cheerleaders

The football team went out this year,
To wave their colors high;
The cheerleaders stood behind them,
And made VICTORY their cry.

At the Howe High football games this season, the songs and the cheers were led by eleven peppy Howe girls, dressed in dashing outfits of green and white decorated with the letter H.

The cheerleaders were led by Wilma Stark, assisted by Dorothea Sands, Frances Marshall, Dorothy Olivieri, Shirley Shaw, Peggy Glavin, Emily Perry, Shirley Clark, Dorothy O'Brien, Mary O'Neill, and Virginia Kilmartin. The girls were under the direction of Miss Marjorie Shaw, who was assisted by Gladys Morrison.

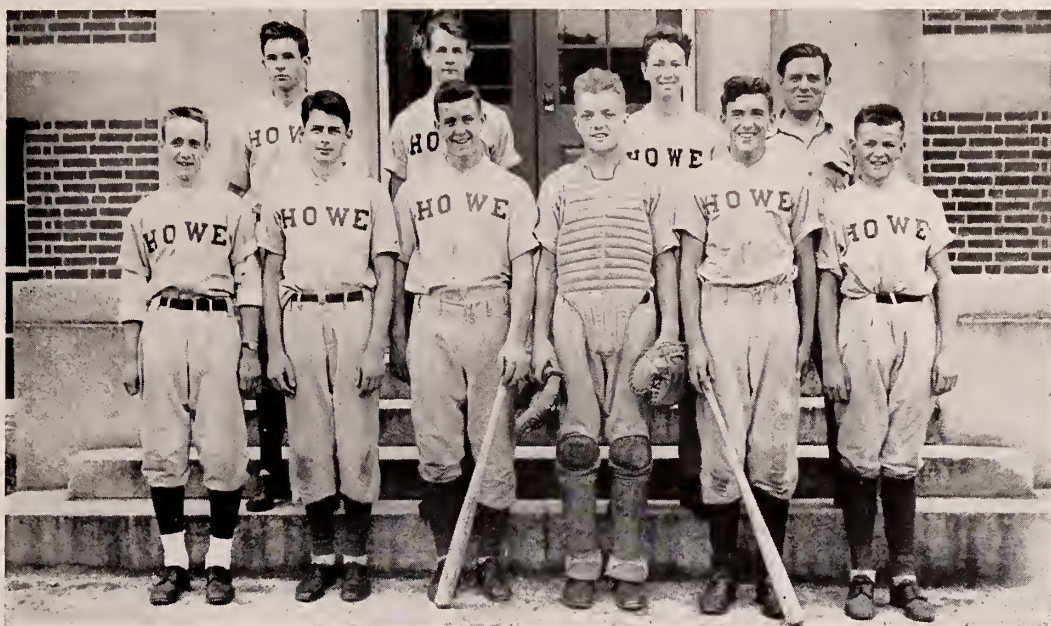

On the day previous to the Thanksgiving Day game a rally was held, and the cheerleaders were escorted into the auditorium by the football players. Here the student body pledged by songs and cheers their whole-hearted support for the big game with Chelmsford. Many new songs and cheers were presented to the students at this time.

The girls continued their work throughout the basketball season and cheered the Howe teams to VICTORY when defeat seemed almost inevitable.

According to the public, the work and the appearance of the cheerleaders this year have surpassed that of any other year.

Once again a team of eleven backed a much stronger eleven.

Baseball

The outlook for the Howe baseball team was not very promising. It was brightened up by the appointment of Fred Neison as coach.

The team played in a league with Tewksbury, Methuen, Johnson, Punchard, and Chelmsford. The Howe boys played two games with each team.

The coach was handicapped by the small squad which showed up at practice. The lure of jobs with big money had forced many of the boys to abandon the sport and go to work.

Boys' Basketball

The boys started practice in December under the direction of Coach "Chet" Ingraham. Scheduled girls' practices in our gym necessitated our holding practice sessions during the Christmas vacation.

The boys faced many difficulties which hampered them throughout the season. The main problem was arranging practices in the late afternoon so that Mr. Ingraham, a teacher in another school system, could be present to supervise.

The squad put in long, tiring hours getting into condition for the coming basketball season. This year Howe was to play in a league with Tewksbury, Wilmington, Dracut, Johnson, Burlington and Chelmsford. The Howe boys were to play two games with each opponent. The team had a fairly successful season with five wins and seven losses. This record enabled Howe to gain fourth place in the league standings.

Girls' Basketball

The Howe girls started practicing early in December under the direction of Miss Mary Fitzgerald and Miss Eleanor Wain. The girls practiced afternoons after school and mornings during the December vacation to prepare for their first game, which was played early in January.

The Howe girls were to participate in a Suburban League. It was the first time since the war that this league was functioning.

Teams from Chelmsford, Wilmington, Johnson, Dracut, Tewksbury, and Burlington were opponents of the Howe girls in the league. Transportation for the out-of-town games was furnished by buses, and these bus rides were certainly enjoyed by all.

The girls' team had a successful season with seven wins and five losses. This record enabled the Howe girls to clinch fourth place in the league standings.

Yearbook Staff

The Yearbook staff, under Miss Mary H. O'Neill's management, has attempted to produce this yearbook as the best ever published. In addition to the usual yearbook features, we have tried to add more candid shots, special features, and to pay tribute to the fiftieth anniversary of our own Alumni Association. We hope you get as much pleasure out of reading this edition as we did in editing it for you.

Miss O'Neill's untiring supervision has been a great factor in the success of this yearbook. Our editor-in-chief, Elizabeth Harford, and the associate editors have also been of great assistance.

"Scholastic Review"

At the beginning of the year, the "Scholastic Review" was without an adviser, because Miss Helen Davis, last years' adviser, was on leave of absence. Miss O'Neill, despite her many other duties, offered to take the job of staff adviser.

The "Gossip corner," so popular last year, was continued by this year's staff. Each staff member contributed to the "gossip", and the column was appropriately called "Over the Back Fence."

The social affairs such as the Senior Prom, the Senior Play, Freshman and Sophomore Hops, and Tri-Delta, were reported by the class scribes, whose duty it was to "corner" all school functions.

Students from various English divisions wrote essays, both in humorous and serious veins, which contributed greatly to the "Review".

The column "Introducing. . ." was carried over from last year. Each staff member was interviewed by another fellow member. The introductions were very popular, and were read with avid interest.

The staff consisted of the following: editor-in-chief: Joan Frobose; associate editors: Catherine Pitts, Marilyn Gracie, Betty Innis, Eileen Hurley, Elsa Tuttle; school scribes: William MacDonald, Douglas Hall, Elizabeth Harford; sports editors: Joseph Zarella, Mary O'Neill; alumni reporter: Lucy Kamishlian; typists: Shirley Shaw, Mae Ellen Shedd, Grace Martell, Margaret Glavin and Florence Locke.

Our one regret is that the Billerica News found it financially unfeasible to edit our "Scholastic Review" each week for us.

Senior Play

Our play this year was a tremendous success. The play presented was Booth Tarkington's Clarence. Miss E. Ruth Belcher coached the cast through numerous rehearsals, and gave very unstintingly of her time and her efforts.

The cast of the play included Dick Nickless, who played Mr. Wheeler, the father of a very nerve-wracking family; Cynthia Cousins, who played Mr. Wheeler's petulant wife; Virginia Kilmartin, who portrayed Cora, Mrs. Wheeler's impish step-daughter; David Nuttall, who made the part of Cora's mischievous brother, Bobby, very amusing; Gladys Morrison, as Violet, made a very good governess of the bewildering Cora; Edwin MacIntosh evoked many shrieks of delight from the audience, as Mr. Hubert Stem, who tried in vain to win the affections of Violet; Lucy Kamishlian captured the hearts of her audience as Della, the demure Irish parlormaid in the Wheeler household; Frederick Kelley will long be remembered for his wonderful portrayal of the Wheeler's haughty butler, Dinwiddie; and last, but by no means least, Leon Bryant, who was "the cause of it all," as Clarence, an ex-soldier and an avid entomologist. Clarence upset the whole Wheeler domicile, but eventually settled all the Wheeler problems.

Tri - Delta

The Tri-Delta Girls' Club was organized this year by Miss Myra Roberts. The officers elected by the girls are as follows: president, Rosalie LaValle; vice-president, Cynthia Johnson; secretary, Mary Barter; and treasurer, Elinor Watts.

Under the direction of Miss Roberts, the girls have had a very busy year, with one or more activities each month. In September the club had a hay ride; in October the girls took to the water and had a splash party; then, of course, the traditional Victory Hop in November; at Christmas time an appropriate Christmas Party was held; another splash party relieved the dull monotony of January; in February the girls went on a trip to Boston to see the Ice Follies; the girls voted for another splash party in March; April will be remembered for its famous "Hubba Hubba Hop;" then finally the club brought its activities to a close with a very woodsy picnic.

The club is called to order each Wednesday noon in one of the class rooms. The girls mix business with pleasure and eat their lunch during the meetings.

During the year the members have helped the Athletic Association very much by selling tickets at football and basketball games. The girls were also very willing to sell programs, ice cream, and potato chips at the Chelmsford vs Howe game on Thanksgiving.

On the whole, the girls have had a lot of fun working together to prepare for activities as well as having fun participating in the actual "doings".

Glee Clubs

Since the chorus has been eliminated, the Glee Club has been divided into two sections: one of which consists of mixed voices, and the other that of an all girl chorus.

Orchestra

The senior high school orchestra has provided an excellent opportunity for those students whose interests lie in the playing of musical instruments.

The orchestra has been conducted under the expert leadership of Mrs. Mildred B. McKeen, whose experience and knowledge have attributed greatly to the success of the group.

The orchestra has had many opportunities for showing its talent and improvement in that it has entertained on many occasions. It has added greatly to our patriotic programs; and last spring, collaborating with the senior high Glee Clubs, it presented a concert.

In the long run . . . . .

You and your friends will prize the portrait that looks like you . . . your truest self, free from stage effects and little conceits.

It is in this "long run" photography that Purdy success has been won. Portraiture by the camera that one cannot laugh at or cry over in later years.

For present pleasure and future pride protect your photographic self by having Purdy make your portraits.
